

ECCN number for Syncfusion, Inc. products

Summary

- All products with the exception of Essential PDF – EAR99
- Essential PDF - 5D002C.1

Explanation

The ECCN number for all products with the exception of Essential PDF is EAR99. More information on EAR99 is available from http://www.export.gov/regulation/exp_001498.asp . In general EAR99 products do not require special licenses to most countries as described on the page cited.

Essential PDF contains encryption code and is officially classified under ECCN 5D002.C.1. More information on this classification is available from <http://www.access.gpo.gov/bis/ear/pdf/ccl5-pt2.pdf> . This classification has more stringent requirements for export as detailed in the referenced document.

Clause 12 of our license agreement states that while we are responsible for the initial sale, the customer is responsible for ensuring that further transactions do not contravene United States Department of Commerce regulations.
