

Professional Hospitality Content Page

Venue Name : Professional Hospitality
Course Name : Professional Hospitality
Module Name : Welcome - General Information
Page Title : Welcome

Page Content:

Welcome

Welcome to our venue. You are about to undertake your first training around your new position by undertaking the following induction.

and#160;

You are important to us as an employee and we want to support you in settling quickly and happily into your new role.

and#160;

This induction is designed to assist you in understanding the general rules and regulations of this venue which should be strictly observed. Other specifics pertaining to your new position will be explained in detail by management beyond this induction. However we do encourage you to always be active in seeking practical advice from management and other employees pertaining to your position, should you require this to do your job well.

As an employee full time, part time or casual you have a duty to familiarise yourself with this information.

and#160;

Upon completion of this induction and completion of your Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA), and if applicable your Gaming Licence (GL) you will gain the basic necessary knowledge to undertake your role safely and successfully.

This induction will assist you to settle into your role and help keep you safe and informed.

We wish you well in your new position.

and#160;